

January 16, 2019
7:00 pm- 8:30 pm

Garfield Park Academy
24 Glenolden Lane
Willingboro, NJ 08046

Turning 18: Guardianship & Transition to Adult Services

featuring Adam Wilson, Esq.,
Attorney with Hinkle, Fingles, Prior & Fischer, Attorneys at Law

As part of our Parent Education Program

This event is FREE and All are welcome!

Parents need to plan ahead in order to maximize services in the final years of schooling and to ensure their son or daughter with special needs receives appropriate services in adulthood.

This workshop will discuss parents' rights and school obligations under the IDEA's transition requirements and describe government services which are vital when an individual with disabilities turns 18 and 21. Attendees will also learn about guardianship and alternatives to guardianship for those who need support with decision-making.

Access to SSI, Medicaid and Medicaid Waivers, DDD, DVRS, day and residential services will be discussed. Specific assessment and service planning tools will be reviewed.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER:

Adam P. Wilson, Esq. is an attorney with Hinkle, Fingles, Prior & Fischer, Attorneys at Law, a firm that specializes in disability and special education law. He is well versed in all areas of disability law and has demonstrated a commitment to representing underserved populations. He graduated Cum Laude from Rutgers School of Law, Camden. Adam frequently lectures on a variety of disability-related legal topics. Adam is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and he is a member of the Elder and Disability Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association.

Register Online
gpajan2019.eventbrite.com

...Or call
609-877-4111