If you are ready to LEARN, TRAIN, and WORK, then Job Corps is ready for you!

WHAT YOU NEED TO DECIDE

Are you ready to TRAIN in challenging, hands-on classes?

Are you ready to LEARN and become the person you know you can be?

Are you ready to LIVE on a Job Corps campus and discover what it's like to be on your own?

Are you ready to CONNECT with teachers, counselors, employers, and graduates?

THE PRICE OF ADMISSION ISN'T MONEY, IT'S THE DESIRE TO SUCCEED.

TAKE THE FIRST STEP—APPLY TO JOB CORPS

You may be eligible for Job Corps if you:

Are committed to improving your education and your future

Need job skills training, education, counseling, or related assistance to help get you started on a career pathway

Are between the ages of 16 and 24

Are a U.S. citizen, a legal U.S. resident, or are a resident of a U.S. territory and/or are authorized to work in the United States

Meet other eligibility requirements

You may NOT be eligible for Job Corps if you:

Use drugs illegally under federal law

Exhibit behavioral problems that could prevent you or others from success in Job Corps

Have certain criminal convictions or require court supervision

Enrolling in Job Corps will require you to provide certain documentation. Your Admissions Representative will be able to tell you exactly what you will need. Keep in mind the application process is thorough and can take time to complete.

JOB CORPS STUDENTS CAN TELL YOU ... IT'S REAL.

"[My instructors] mentored me and Job Corps helped me with self-control, discipline, and adapting to different environments and people. Take [it] seriously, because surely there will be success awaiting you in the end."

JAZMIN Y.

Jazmin is a Pharmacy Technician graduate from the Cleveland Job Corps Center who is now a pharmacy technician at a Walgreens Pharmacy. She plans to attend a local university to study pharmaceutical science.

"With just a backpack full of dreams and $23 in my pocket, I moved back to Laredo, Texas, to enroll in the Job Corps program on July 23, 2002. [Today,] I manage over 35 employees, paying forward everything I learned at Job Corps—starting with leadership, compassion, effort, humility, ethics, and joy for life itself."

RAMIRO M.

Ramiro is an Accounting Services graduate from the Laredo Job Corps Center in Texas.

"In life, you must find all the correct tools and equipment that will forge your success. Opportunities do not usually come to your doorstep; rather, they are sought out and found. Without the support system I had at Job Corps, I would not be where I am today."

CRISTIAN Y.-S.

Cristian is a Pine Ridge Job Corps Center graduate who is now a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

"A work ethic was instilled in me at Job Corps. It made me a better person, and it made me appreciate all of the experiences that came afterward."

LYDIA M.

Lydia is a Job Corps graduate who went on to receive certifications as both a registered nurse and case manager. She is currently the California Statewide Case Management director of Medi-Cal Programs at Anthem BlueCross in Fresno, Calif.

TRAIN

Job Corps offers career training in high-growth industries that will give you the hands-on, practical experience you need to begin working toward a long-term, successful career—not just a job, but an actual CAREER that you can build on for the rest of your life.

Your career path will depend on which industry or training area you choose to pursue. Your instructors and advisors at Job Corps will work with you to set you on a path similar to the ones to the right.

Work-based learning is part of every training area so students can learn from real employers and get on-the-job experience to become workforce-ready.

Job Corps has Advanced Training programs in different industries at select centers across the country. Interested students must apply to these programs and be prepared to move to another center if accepted.

Pre-Apprenticeship programs offer students the hands-on training and education needed to qualify for apprenticeships.

LEARN

In today’s job market, more and more employers are requiring that their employees have at least some college education. No matter where you are on your educational journey, Job Corps will help you obtain the academic support you need to achieve your career goals.

ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

EARN YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA

(if you don’t already have yours) or the equivalent through classroom and online programs.

SEEK TUTORING OPTIONS

in several areas, including English Language Learning, reading, writing, science, and math.

TAKE COLLEGE-LEVEL CLASSES

through Job Corps’ many partnerships at local community colleges. Through these partnerships, you can earn college credit while enrolled in the program. Your center will arrange transportation and help make sure you have everything you need for your classes.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Learn how to effectively communicate with your peers and supervisors.

RESUME/INTERVIEW GUIDANCE

Receive guidance on resume writing and how to prepare for job interviews.

NETWORKING

Network with local employers and community leaders.

TEAMWORK

Develop leadership skills and learn conflict resolution best practices.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Put career and leadership skills to work through community service events and projects.

WHAT TO WEAR

Learn how to dress appropriately for your job.

DETERMINATION

Learn that your career fate is in your hands—you have to want it and be willing to do the work.

An important part of the Job Corps experience is learning to adapt to center life and becoming an active member of a community. This includes learning how to work in teams, living in a dorm setting, and participating in center and community outreach events.

TYPICAL JOB CORPS CAMPUS

CONNECT

Job Corps is step one on your career path. As you prepare to complete your training area, staff and mentors on center will help you transition to the next phase that is most appropriate for your particular career.

WORKPLACE EXPERIENCE

Some students will immediately enter the workforce to gain experience in their field before moving on to career advancement or additional training or education.

ADVANCED TRAINING

Many students choose to apply to one of Job Corps' Advanced Training programs in industries like health care, information technology, manufacturing, and transportation to advance their skills and get added credentials before entering the workforce.

APPRENTICESHIP

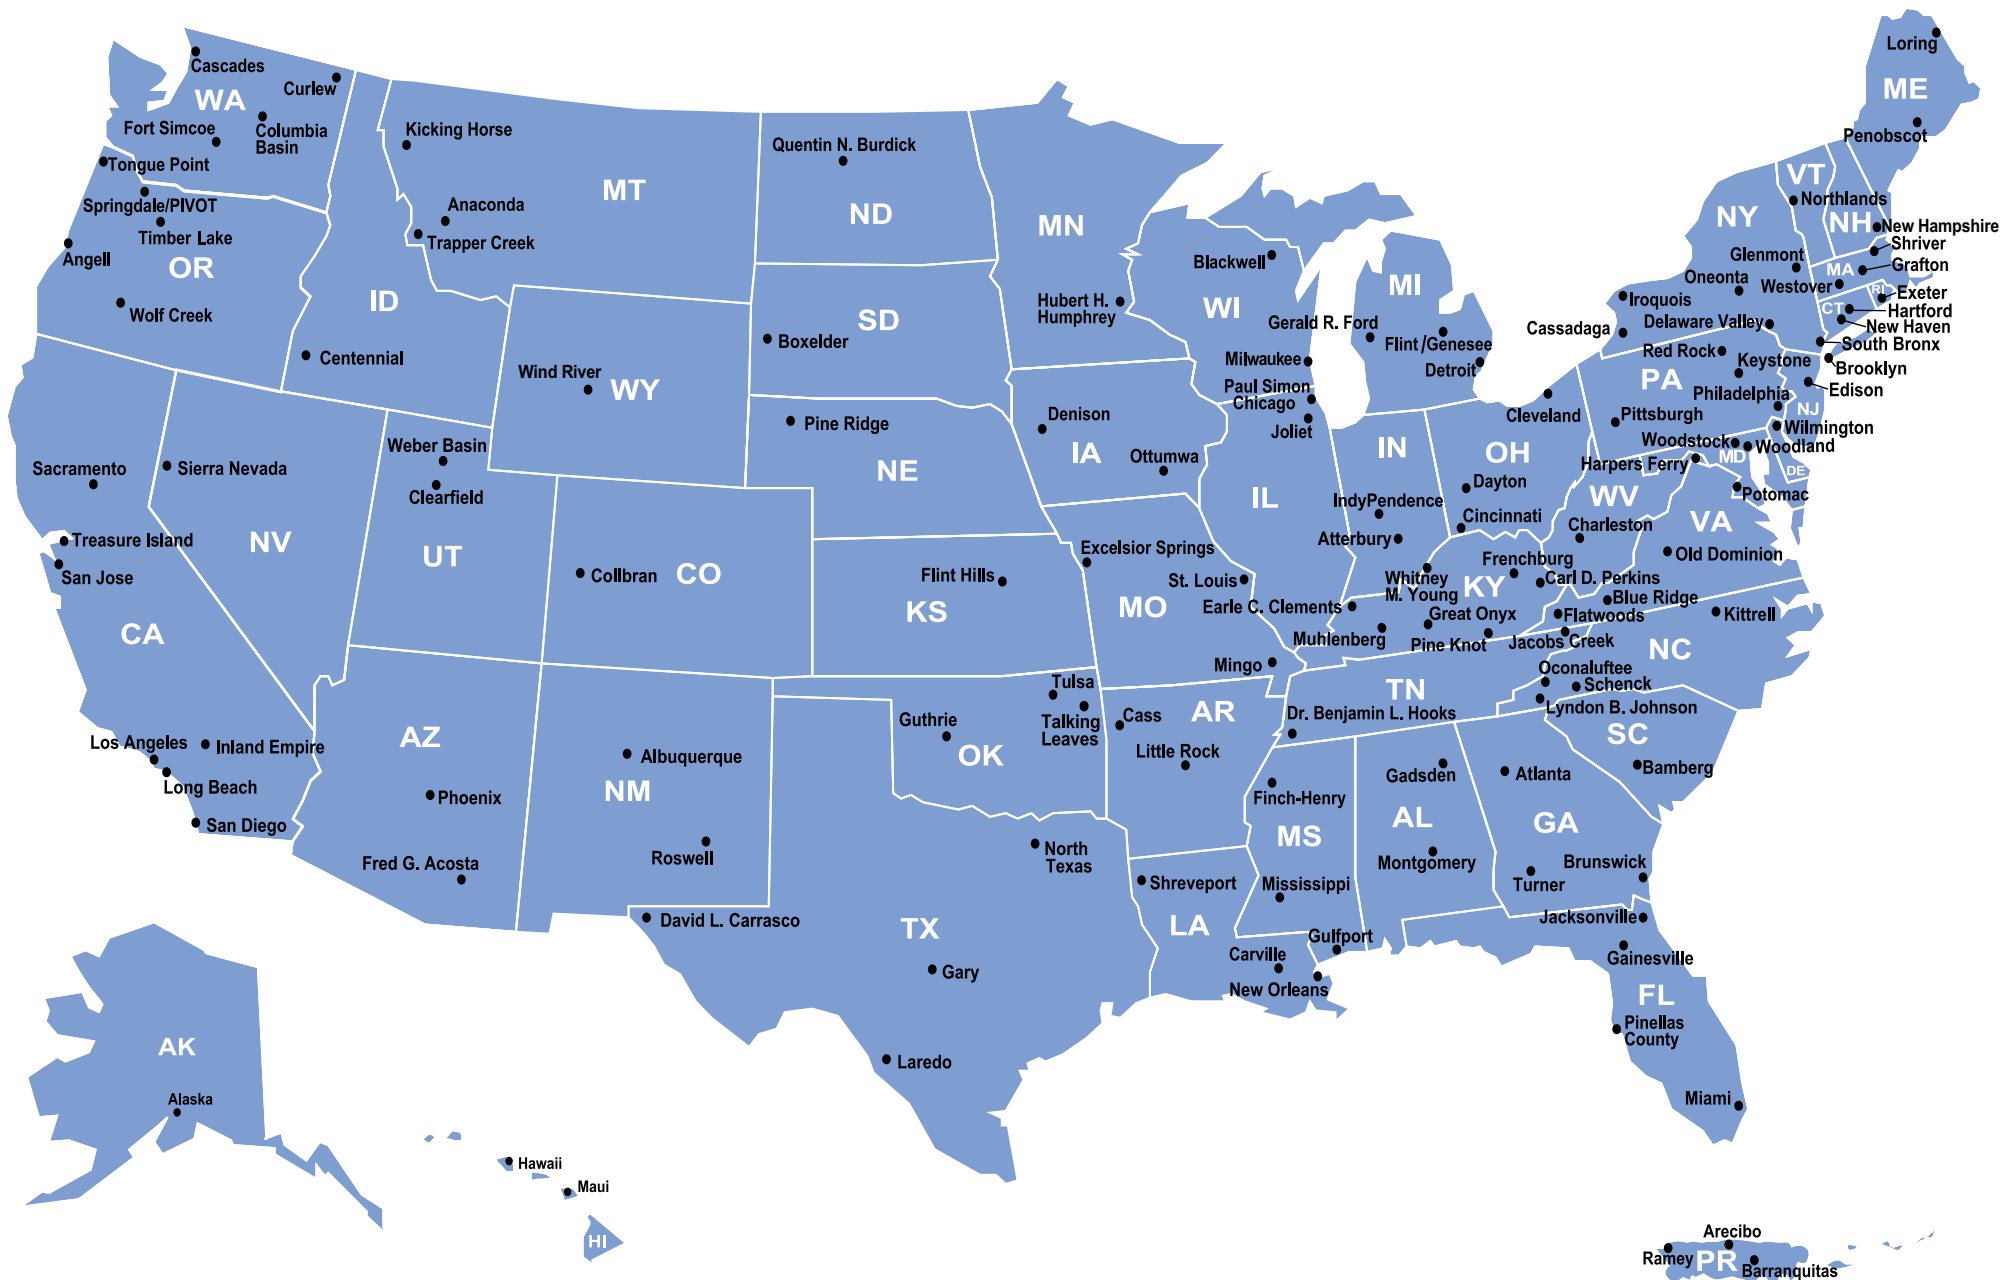

Depending on your chosen industry, Job Corps helps you get into certain apprenticeship programs, where you may work under the supervision of a journey-level craftsperson or industry professional.

HIGHER EDUCATION

Continuing your education and pursuing a college degree is also an option for Job Corps graduates. Staff will guide students through this decision and help them complete the application process.

LOCATIONS

Job Corps has 123 centers across the United States and in Puerto Rico. After you complete the initial application process, your Admissions Representative will connect you with the center that best fits your training, education, and career goals.
